

PSALM

34 The LORD I will at all times bless

Capo 1: G C Am D7 G C A A7 D D7

1 The LORD I will at all times bless and praise him with my voice.
 2 They look to him and shine with joy; they are not put to shame.
 3 Come, taste and see—the LORD is good; who trusts in him is blest.

G C Am D7 G C G D7 G

Be - cause I glo - ry in the LORD, let trou - bled souls re - joice.
 This suf - fer - ing man cried to the LORD; from him de - liv - er - ance came.
 O fear the LORD, you saints; with need you will not be op - pressed.

Em D° Am B B7 Em Am7 B

O let us mag - ni - fy the LORD; ex - alt his name with me.
 The an - gel of the LORD sur - rounds and guards con - tin - ual - ly
 Young li - ons may grow weak and faint and hun - ger for their food,

G C Am D7 G C G D7 G

I sought the LORD; his an - swer came: from fears he set me free.
 all those who fear and hon - our him; he sets his peo - ple free.
 but those who wait up - on the LORD will not lack an - y good.

The LORD I will at all times bless

- 4 Come here, my children! Gather round and listen to my word;
and I will help you understand how you may fear the LORD.
Does anyone delight in life
and long to see good days?
Then keep your tongue from evil speech,
your lips from lying ways.
- 5 Depart and turn from evil paths
and practise what is right.
Desire to know the way of peace;
pursue it with your might.
The LORD's eyes are upon the just;
he listens to their plea.
The wicked he rejects, and blots
from earth their memory.
- 6 The righteous cry; the LORD responds and frees them when distressed.
The LORD draws near the broken heart
and rescues the depressed.
From all the troubles of the just the LORD will set him free.
The LORD protects his every bone,
and broken none will be.

(to stanza 7 below)

Em D° Am B B7 Em Am7 B

7 The wick-ed are con-demned to death, all those who hate the just.

G C Am D7 G C G D7 G

GOD saves his own; they're not con-demned, for in the LORD they trust.
